STATINTL

MEMORANDUM FOR:

SUBJECT : Supplement to Letter of Instruction

REFERENCE : Your memo dated 5 September 1975, re same subject

1. The Director of Personnel has forwarded your memorandum of 5 September 1975 concerning your belief that senior Agency officials have been malfeasant, concerning the planned misuse of the Director's authority to terminate employees, and concerning your own records.

2. As we have already done with your earlier assertions concerning an employee suggestion and your personal circumstances, I am also forwarding your memorandum of 5 September 1975 to the Inspector General for his review and action.

You will recall our earlier transmittal from [redacted] of the reference and his allegations concerning his treatment, and specifically a problem with respect to an employee suggestion submitted by a co-worker. On our recommendation, that package was forwarded from you to the Inspector General for investigation.

STATINTL

[redacted] has now submitted the attached memorandum in response to our amended letter of instruction. Again, I recommend that you forward this memorandum to the Inspector General and that you sign the attached memorandum to [redacted].
